

UNIVERSITAT DE
BARCELONA

Dealing with child abduction cases under the Brussels II bis Regulation

Vilnius, Lithuania

21 June 2016

National Courts Administration (L. Sapiegos Street 15)

Programme

09.00 – 09.30 Registration

09.30 – 11.00 Session I: Warming up session:
*Legal instruments applicable in the EU in child abduction cases:
Regulation Brussels IIbis and 1980 Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction, other legal instruments and their effect*

11.00 – 11.15 Coffee break

11.15 – 12.45 Session II:
Custody and child abduction

12.45 – 14.00 Lunch

14.00 – 15.00 Session III:
Hearing of the child

15.00 – 15.15 Coffee break

The projects is co-funded by the Justice Programme of the European Union

Organiser

Law Institute of Lithuania, National Courts Administration

Trainers

Marta Tarragona, the University of Barcelona
Georgina Garriga Suau, the University of Barcelona
Benedetta Ubertazzi, the University of Milano-Bicocca
Danijela Vrbljanac, the University of Rijeka Faculty of Law
Ivana Kunda, the University of Rijeka Faculty of Law
Kristina Pranevičienė, Law Institute of Lithuania
Agris Skudra, Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Latvia

The project

The project “EU Judiciary Training on Brussels IIa Regulation: From South to East” is coordinated by the University of Milano-Biocca and led by Constanza Honorati. The purpose of the projects is to develop training materials and organise training events to facilitate uniformity in application of the EU legal instruments on civil judicial cooperation in family matters, or particular cross-border cases related to divorce and parental responsibility and to child abduction. A series of four practice-oriented events are focused on understanding basic concepts and developing legal and reasoning skills using real cases and hypothetical scenarios.

The training session

This training session is organised by the Law Institute of Lithuania in cooperation with the project partners: the University of Rijeka Faculty of Law, the University of Barcelona, the University of Milano-Bicocca, and the local institutions: the National Courts Administration and the State Child Rights Protection and Adoption Service.

The training is aimed at the judges dealing with child abduction cases.

Contact us

Law Institute of Lithuania
Ankštoji Street 1A, Vilnius (Lithuania)
(8-5) 210 1675
milda.kaminskaite@teise.org

Follow us at

www.brussels2family.eu

Language of the training: English

The projects is co-funded by the Justice Programme of the European Union